Determination of Patent Term Adjustment under 35 U.S.C. 154 (b) (application filed on or after May 29, 2000)

The Patent Term Adjustment to date is 113 day(s). If the issue fee is paid on the date that is three months after the mailing date of this notice and the patent issues on the Tuesday before the date that is 28 weeks (six and a half months) after the mailing date of this notice, the Patent Term Adjustment will be 113 day(s).

If a Continued Prosecution Application (CPA) was filed in the above-identified application, the filing date that determines Patent Term Adjustment is the filing date of the most recent CPA.

Applicant will be able to obtain more detailed information by accessing the Patent Application Information Retrieval (PAIR) system (<http://pair.uspto.gov>).

Any questions regarding the Patent Term Extension or Adjustment determination should be directed to the Office Patent Legal Administration at (703) 305-1383. Questions relating to issue and publication fee payments should be directed to the Customer Service Center of the Office of Patent Publication at (703) 305-8283.

DETAILED ACTION

The Amendment filed on 17 November 2003 has been acknowledged.

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on 17 November 2003 was filed and is being considered by the examiner.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-14, 23-29, 31, 32 and 34-42 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The primary reason for the allowance of claim 1 is the inclusion of the limitation of the at least one fluid channel is defined by first and second substantially parallel side walls that are generally orthogonal to the first surface and first and second non-parallel end walls that are not orthogonal to the first surface. It is these limitations found in each of the claims, as they are claimed in the combination, that has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

The primary reason for the allowance of claim 23 is the inclusion of the limitation of the at least one fluid channel is defined by first and second side walls that are substantially perpendicular to the first major surface, and first and second end walls that are not perpendicular to the first major surface. It is these limitations found in each of the claims, as they are claimed in the combination, that has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

Art Unit: 2853

The primary reason for the allowance of claim 31 is the inclusion of the limitation of at least one fluid channel is defined at least in part by first generally curved end wall that is concave toward the first surface and away from the second surface. It is these limitations found in each of the claims, as they are claimed in the combination, that has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

The primary reason for the allowance of claim 42 is the inclusion of the limitation of the at least one fluid channel being further defined by first and second linear and substantially parallel side walls and first and second non-parallel end walls. It is these limitations found in each of the claims, as they are claimed in the combination, that has not been found, taught or suggested by the prior art of record which makes these claims allowable over the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
